

A day in the coffee shop

Elina works as a barista. This means that she works with preparing coffee for customers in a coffee shop. She has worked in the shop for about 5 years and has become very good at her work. She loves to make a good Cappuccino! It is a type of coffee with cream that Elina is expert at. Her Cappuccino is famous all over the town the coffeeshop is located in.

She starts her day at 6:30, half an hour before the shop opens. She makes sure that everything is put on the right place so that the staff and her can serve customers. Elina also makes sure that everything is clean and spotless. After that, the coffee shop opens.

After a busy morning, Elina takes a break at around 10:00, when the demand of coffee and other things has decreased.

An hour later, she returns and serves coffee for the customers that requests it until the time is 14:00. At that time, her day ends. Elina loves interacting with customers, talking to people and also preparing and drinking coffee. So she usually goes home and makes a coffee or two and meets up with a couple of friends.
