

PLEASE NOTE: All "facts" and names presented in these newspaper notices are fictional and not real.

Water leak caused temporary service stop

A water leak whose cause still is being investigated caused problems for several different businesses yesterday. The water had to be temporarily turned off for an area of almost two blocks, which forced many businesses to close early.

Which kind of company was reported?

A _____ company.

Why were they reported?

Nanny's Burger gets new nanny

Popular "Nanny's Burger" is being overtaken by a new nanny. Previous owner and former nanny Madison Terry is retiring after 30 years owning the restaurant. The new (also former nanny) Ann will keep the menu and operate as usual.

What is a fine (in this case)?

- Money you have to pay
- Legal trouble
- A good looking person

FastShop advised customers to only park on their property. True False

Cockroaches and rodents in park

Visitors have noticed both rodents and cockroaches around and on the wooden furniture of Western Woodlands Park. The city is now investigating the reports.

What is the newspaper notice generally about?

- A water leak
- Two blocks
- An investigated cause.

At what time did the leak happen?

Brewing company reported to national health authorities

A popular beer brewing business in San Diego has been reported to national health authorities after a customer found a piece of glass in their newly purchased beer. Thankfully, the customer found the glass piece, reportedly measuring around 5 x 5 cm, before consuming the drink.

Translate the following words and phrases from the text to Swedish:

Nanny _____

Former _____

Retiring _____

As usual _____

$100 fine for FastShop

New supermarket FastShop has already gotten in legal trouble by actively instructing people to park on land owned by a private owner. The company paid the fine and "changed routines" immediately.

Check everything that you currently can find in Western Woodlands Park.

- Pests such as rodents
- Wooden furniture
- A sign about cockroaches