Going shopping

The wake-up alarm started to ring. I looked out of the window – it seemed like a windy and nice day. All my sisters were already up. We are a family with one boy, me, and four girls. Three- of them are my sisters. And we cannot forget dad, of course!

After a nice breakfast cooked by my oldest sister Else, my dad asked everyone a question:
– What if we went shopping today? I could buy new clothing for you and we could also have a look at some books for school.
– Oh, and we need to buy some groceries as well, said Mum.

And now, we are here, in the huge mall called "City Mall". There are shops everywhere – new phones, new decorations, new pencils, new books and lots of other things.
– Here, let´s go to "Clothing and Style", my other sister Wo says.
Everyone looks in the direction she points and we walk over to a huge store.

After shopping for about five hours, my mother found a nice restaurant serving sushi – something that my familly really enjoy eating, especially my youngest sister Li.
– This was a cool day, right? says Mum.
And I think that everyone can agree with this. I have lots of new clothes and my sisters too. Dad brought a nice jacket for mum and mum brought dad an exciting book.

Weather reports

Weather report from the local news:

Hello and welcome to the morning news with me, Lucas Anderson and Anne Tree! Let´s start of with the weather. All our TV watchers in Seattle and in Western USA can look forward to a day with lots of sunshine and only 5% clouds on the sky. Our weather report also says that the whole down part of USA will have a sunny day today as well with an average temperature of 80 Fahrenheit. In the north, you will experience windy weather but no rain and almost no clouds. That was the live weather report from your local news channel. Make sure to tune in at 7 PM for the weekly weather report.

Weather report for the coasts:

The coastline is clear and you can see here, outside the window, that many people have taken a short trip down to the New York beach. I am Luke Pawers and we are looking at the coast weather this morning. Now, it is 10AM but I already estimate that about fifty families are enjoying their time on the beach. And there´s not much to say about the weather either – the whole coastside of USA will get clear skies and sunny weather throughout the day with temeperatures reaching 70 degrees Fahrenheit.

Now, answer the questions about the texts:

1. Where can you find the hottest weather – in the lower part of USA or near the coast? _____.

2. Who hosts the local TV weather show? _____ and _____.

3. How many people, approximately, are there on the beach at 10AM? _____.

4. At what time can you see the next weather report on the local TV weather show? Seven o´clock in the morning OR Seven o´clock in the evening.

5. Are there many clouds in Northern USA, according to the local TV weather show? Yes OR No.

A conversation

- Hello!
- Hey there.
- Do you have fresh pasta here?
- Yes, sure. They are in the back of the shop, on the right side of our bread area.
- And how much does it cost?
- Our pasta is of a really high quality. How much do you want?
- What do you recommend for a family with four people?
- Maybe two packages. Is that okay?
- Yeah, sure.
- Okay then. The price will be 20 dollars.
- 20 dollars? That´s excellent for fresh-made pasta.
- I know. We made it an hour ago.
- Sounds great! I will go and grab two packages and then come back to buy them.

Later:

- You found the pasta! Great. Let me scan the barcode on the package.
- Sure.
- Okay, the price is 20 dollars. Are you paying with your debit card?
- Yes, I am.
- Enter your code then.
- Cool, here you go. Have a nice day!
- You too! Have a nice day! Bye.
