

Welcome back to school! - Writing assignment

You have just been at a wonderful break – whether it was the winter break, summer break, easter break or something else. In this writing assignment, you are supposed to tell what you did during this vacation. You don't have to include it all if the vacation was super long – choose your highlights and favorite parts about the vacation! You should write about one and a half page for this assignment. Make sure to be detailed and calm when you write – do not stress! Have fun!

Write your text below:

What was special
about this vacation?
