

Word Pairing

In this exercise, your task is to pair each describing sentence to the word that best suits the description.

Draw lines between the words and sentences that match directly on this paper.

This is always noticeable and present in our lives.

Some people get to see them live, but most probably don't.

A phenomenon that can help us to plan our lives effectively.

These help transport all kinds of people to all kinds of places.

This is one of the most expensive things that you can think of (probably).

Frowning is the opposite of this thing....
