

Reading Assignment – Traveling

This assignment is Writing Assignment about travelling. You can write your assignment on this paper if you want to.

1. What do I have to write about in this assignment?

Many people travel across the world or just in your city. It is not always considered as traveling, because even if you do travel every day to places in maybe your city, you are not thinking that you are traveling. In this Writing Assignment, you are going to write about somewhere that you have traveled. Write about whatever kind of trip that you like, but try to write a lot.
